CHILD DEVELOPMENT AND FAMILY STUDIES PROGRAM
Human Development and Family Studies Master’s Specialization Curriculum

I. Common Core (27 credit hours)

CDFS 602 Advanced Family Studies
CDFS 615 Research Methods in Child and Family Study
CDFS 618 Program Development and Evaluation
CDFS 590 Current Research Topics in Child Development & Family Studies
PSY 605 Multivariate Statistics
CDFS 590 Administration of Social Service Not-for-Profit Agencies
CDFS 680 Professional Issues for Child and Family Specialists
CDFS 590/698 6-hours of Directed Research or M. S. Thesis

II. 9 credit hours of Electives Courses from the Following Specialties*

Early Childhood Development
Child & Family Studies
Gerontology

*elective courses to be chosen in consultation with faculty advisor and may include more than one specialty area.

(Spring 2013)